

The OBSERVATORY

on borderless higher education

The mission of The Observatory on Borderless Higher Education (OBHE) is to conduct state-of-the-art research, disseminate best practices, emerging trends, policy frameworks and assessment and quality assurance information; and develop strategic partnerships with public and private universities and organisations for the effective delivery of borderless higher education academic programmes and services. OBHE is a subscription organisation and HEFCW.

For more information can be found at the Observatory on Borderless Higher Education website.