Introduction

1. This circular provides a link to the consultation being run by the four higher education (HE) funding bodies in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland on changes to the National Student Survey and to the Unistats website. The consultation reflects the findings of stage one of a two-stage review of information about learning and teaching and the student experience.

2. HEFCW is consulting under its powers under section 23 of the Higher Education (Wales) Act 2015 to issue or approve guidance about any matter they think relevant to improving or maintaining the quality of education provided by or on behalf of regulated institutions’.

3. Responses are required by 4 December 2015 to HEFCE.

The consultation

4. The consultation covers proposals for
   - Changes to the Unistats website and the Key Information Set for 2017
   - Information published by institutions about their courses for 2017
   - Changes to the National Student Survey for 2017
   - Potential changes to information after 2017.

5. The summary of the proposals is as follows:

Consultation outcomes

8. The UK-wide Higher Education Public Information Steering Group (HEPISG) will consider the responses to this consultation in February 2016 and advise the funding bodies on next steps.

9. The outcomes of the consultation and the next steps, agreed by the Boards or Councils of the funding bodies, will be published in spring 2016. This will enable preparatory work to begin changes to institutions’ websites in 2016 and changes to Unistats and the National Student Survey from 2017.
